THE ROYAL EXCHANGE OF SYDNEY
ESTABLISHED IN 1851

WHY JOIN?

Our members are our reason for being. We know them by name, know what they like and know how they like it.

And we'll always go the extra mile to ensure you and your guests are happy and well looked after.

THE PERFECT RENDEZVOUS

Looking for a place to call your own? Somewhere you can feel confident bringing clients. And where you know you'll be looked after on any occasion, even just a short meeting, becomes an event to remember.

We're conveniently located in the CBD with a unique ambience that's just right for conversation. Our food is classic and delicious, with enough options to cater for everyone while being easy enough for them to make a quick decision. It's served promptly by a professional team who strike the perfect balance of exceptional service – always there when you need them but without interrupting your meal. All at an exceptional price.

A LIKE-MINDED COMMUNITY

We know business is all about relationships. The deeper and broader they are, the more opportunities come your way.

At The Exchange, you'll meet those likeminded businesspeople who understand your challenges and who talk your language. People who will look for opportunities to do business with you and help facilitate it for you with others. It's a network like no other.

FEATURES & BENEFITS

BECOME PART OF HISTORY

When you become a member of the Royal Exchange, you're not just joining a club; you're becoming part of history. Established in 1851, we're one of Sydney's oldest and most historic business clubs.

Boasting some of Australia's most prominent and respected business figures as members throughout our history, we continue this tradition today as a place for likeminded businesspeople to meet, interact and facilitate the 'exchange' of business with one another.
